Outreach in Madagascar

We are partnering with Echoes of Madagascar & Cooperation Emerging Countries (CO.P.E) to reach children throughout the country of Madagascar.

CO.P.E is an Italian-based nonprofit that works on various human rights projects worldwide. We are partnering with their efforts in northern Madagascar to provide nourishing meals to the children in their local school.

Echoes of Madagascar is a nonprofit that has been working in many villages around Madagascar for over a decade. Through your support, we will be implementing a nutrition program in the kids' clubs that they have set up in multiple areas throughout the country.

We will be visiting the school, as well as many of the villages with kids' clubs, in May.

Featured Board Member

Mark Polhemus started his career in the military where he was a Platoon Leader, Company Commander, and Battalion Operations Officer. He then attended Brown University's School of Medicine and trained in Internal Medicine and Infectious Diseases at Walter Reed Army Medical center. Dr. Polhemus then spent the remainder of his 23-year military career conducting medical research around the world.

Afterward, he became the Director of the SUNY Upstate Center for Global Health & Translational Science for 7 years. Now, he is the VP for Global Operations for ICON Government & Public Health Solutions. ECF is grateful for the knowledge & expertise that he contributes. Thanks, Mark!

First Annual Enspice Children's Foundation Gala
